BLAIR'S OUTLOOK BRIGHT.
Ex-Senator Wellington to Support Maryland Candidate.
A large number of the leading Republicans of Montgomery County attended a conference in Rockville yesterday afternoon in the interest of the candidacy of Gist Blair, for the Congressional nomination. A telegram from Mr. Blair, who is campaigning in Allegany County, stated that former Senator George L. Wellington will support him for the nomination.
The conference was addressed by Thomas Dawson, C. W. Chum, Henry H.
Miller, Gilmore Holmes, Maurice Browning, D. W. Baker, Edward W. Byrne, Charles F. Kirk, and others, all of whom declared that the nomination of Mr. Blair would be the best thing that could happen to the party.
The feeling among those present was that Mr. Blair would not only carry this county in the primaries, but was assured of the nomination. It was arranged to conduct a vigorous contest in each district of the county in Mr. Blair's behalf the remaining days of the campaign.

Home Robbed of Jewelry.
Report was made to the police of the Ninth precinct last night by Charles Sandford, of 714 Light Street northeast, that his home had been entered some time during the day and about $50 worth of jewelry stolen. Entrance had been gained by forcing a window at the rear of the house.
Among the coke producing States Pen-sylvania ranks first and West Virginia second.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Committees Finish Details for Firemen's Convention.

DECORATING WORK IS BEGUN

Washington Department Will Have Fireboat at Exhibition Drills During Gathering—Boys Find New Motor in Three Feet of Water at Four-mile Run—Robber Jailed.

F. Clinton Knight, 65 King street, Alexandria, Va., is authorized agent and carrier for The Washington Herald. The Herald will be delivered daily and Sunday to any address in Alexandria for 4 cents a month.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 65 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 20.—A meeting of the chairmen of the various committees for the firemen's convention was held to-night in the rooms of the chamber of commerce. The general committee will hold a meeting Monday night to wind up the affair.

Everything is in readiness for the big celebration. Decorations have already been started. A large force of decorators will be kept busy until the day of the parade. It is expected that every house along the line of march will be decorated.

The committee on entertainment has spared no pains in making arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors. The big event will take place Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with a big parade, in which 1,500 firemen, from every section of the State, will be present. Friday morning there will be real races.

A feature arranged by the Washington fire department is an exhibition by the fireboat Firefighter Thursday morning.
The firefighter will give either a land or water exhibition.

A small motor engine, believed to have been stolen from a power launch, was fished out of three feet of water in Four-mile Run by Nat. Hutton yesterday. Several boys were in bathing at the time, and Hutton's foot came in contact with a sharp piece of metal. It was apparently new and had only been there but a short time, as it was not corroded.

A series of five games for the championship of Alexandria between the Cardinal Athletic Club and the Alexandria Athletic Club will be played on the old fair grounds, beginning at 4:30 o'clock next Saturday.

In Police Court this morning Henry Scott, a negro, was sent to jail for six months, and also fined $50 on a charge of stealing furniture valued at $44. Scott did not make any statement.

In the Corporation Court to-day a deed was placed on record from Samuel C.
Boush and others, conveying to Frank C. Pullin a house and lot on Queen street, between Royal and Fairfax streets.

Folkman Reid and Constables Payne and Foley this evening arrested William Carter, a negro, on a charge of ill-treating a horse belonging to P. T. Harrington, this city. Carter will be given a hearing before Justice T. S. Wright, Fairfax County, Monday.

The annual inspection of Company G, Alexandria Light Infantry, will be made at Armory Hall September 20 by Lieut.
Col. Jo Lane Stern, assistant inspector general of Virginia Volunteers.

Four peach trees in the yard of C. W.
O'Meara, 37 South Washington street, were chopped down by vandals last night.

B. F. Smith, who has been awarded the contract for remodeling the city jail, will begin work shortly.

Wythe White, formerly manager for the Southern Bell Telephone Company, this city, is in New York visiting his brother.

ST. LOUIS INCREASE SMALL

Boston Stands Chance to Regain Fourth Place.

Census Figures Show Metropolis of Missouri to Have Gained Less Than 20 Per Cent.

St. Louis has increased 19.4 per cent, or 111,791 in population in ten years, according to an announcement made last night by Census Director Durand. Her population is 657,029, as compared with 545,238 in 1900.

St. Louis took fourth place among cities of the country in 1890, when she passed Boston, with a population of 451,770. In that year Boston's population was officially fixed at 448,477. In 1900 the population of Boston had increased to 569,892, and that of St. Louis to 575,238. In 1880, when Boston stood fourth in size, her population was 362,- 829, and that of St. Louis 350,513. Boston is the only city that stands a chance of dislodging St. Louis from fourth place, but observers here are inclined to believe that the two cities will maintain their relative rank in the 1910 census.

The census figures for Boston are yet to be made public.
The cities that outranked St. Louis in the 1900 census were New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia.

The 1900 census figures of, but few of the large cities have so far been made public. Cincinnati and St. Louis are the only ones among the first ten cities.
Cincinnati gained 11.8 per cent in the decade—from 335,902 in 1900 to 374,463.
Among the larger cities Detroit has shown the largest percentage of growth, increasing from 285,704 in 1900 to 465,766.

Drinks Acid by Mistake.
Charles Morrison, twenty-eight years old, of 223 Third street southeast, drank a quantity of carbonic acid yesterday afternoon, thinking it medicine. Members of the family called an ambulance from the Casualty Hospital, where prompt action saved his life. He will recover.

Huckster Pleads Not Guilty.
In the Police Court yesterday William Harritos, the Greek arrested Friday on the charge of attempted assault on seven-year-old Edith Jennings, daughter of James H. Jennings, of the Geological Survey, entered a plea of not guilty. In default of the $1,000 bond, he was committed to jail.

WILL DIRECT CHOIR.

R. MILLS SILBY.

WILL DIRECT CHOIR.

R. Mills Silby Engaged for St. Patrick's Church.

St. Patrick's Church has engaged R.
Mills Silby as organist and director of the sanctuary choir. Mr. Silby has recently returned from Woodford, England, where he spent his vacation, and has an apartment at the Alton. He came to this city last September, and immediately started the reorganization of the sanctuary choir at St. Patrick's. After trying boys' voices every morning for two weeks, he succeeded in getting about twenty-four boys that were considered efficient for probation. Stainer's exercises were adopted at first, and are still being sung every morning.

Mr. Silby began at the age of ten as a choir boy at St. Albans, Holborn, in London. After three years he went to the Brompton Oratory, where he sang until his voice broke. He also sang at the St.
John's Pops. He entered Westminster Cathedral at the age of eighteen. While at the cathedral he formed a choral society, and was appointed professor of harmony and singing at the London College of Music. Later he became director of the London County Council Musical Society.

Miss Mary L. Kelly, of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kelly, who has been in Berlin for several years studying the piano, spent the month of July with Xaver Scharwenka, her teacher, and his party at Taras-Fontana, in Switzerland, studying and pursuing her studies incidentally. Miss Kelly made a trip to Oberammergau, Nuremberg, and Munich early in the summer, and before she returns to Berlin to begin her studies for the winter, she will visit Weimar, Jena, Salzburg, and Innsbruck.

Dr. B. Merrill Hopkinson, of Baltimore, who is a favorite soloist in Washington, where he is well known, has resigned his position as baritone soloist and director of music in the Madison Avenue Temple, Baltimore, a position which he has held for the past nineteen years. Dr. Hopkinson was one of the leading singers in this country a few years ago, but of late years he has not done so much concert work.

Rev. Father Finn, the Paulist father who organized the male choir of St.
Paul's Catholic Church, and who did such remarkable work with the Paulist choir for some years, spent a few days here in Washington last week, a guest at the Apostolic Mission House. He is on his way to Montreal, where he will attend the Eucharistic Congress, to be held there next month, and where he will read a paper on church music.

Mrs. Annie Louise Powell, formerly of this city, returned here yesterday from Charles County, Md., where she went early in the week, to appear in concert at Guild Hall, Durham Parish, on Thursday evening. In the party with Mrs.
Powell were Mrs. Park Reeder, soprano; Miss Leila Harrison Gray, Miss Eleanor Turner, Mr. H. Rae Fitch, and Mr.
Walter Stanley Peters, Mrs. Powell acting as accompanist, several of whose songs were on the programme. Their programme included a quartet for the opening number, Molly's "Song of the Triton," by Mrs. Reeder, Mrs. Powell, Mr. Fitch, and Mr. Peters; Phillips' "A Son of the Desert and a Son of the Sea"; Herbert's, "Cupid and Psyche"; Reeder; Balfie's, "If Thou Couldst Know," Mr.
Fitch; Mrs. Powell's, "If Love Were All," Miss Gray; Excelsior Duet, Mr.
Fitch and Mr. Peters; Clarendon's, "If I had the World to Give You," Mrs.
Turner; Cowles' "Border Ballad," Mr.
Peters; Parker's "Gypsy Maiden," Mrs.
Reeder; Neesler's, "It was not so to be," Mr. Fitch; Schmidt's, "A Garden of Roses," Miss Gray; Sawyer's, "Shine on, Oh Stars," Mr. Peters; Mrs. Powell's "Good-night, Mumsey, Good-night," Miss Turner; Slennon's "Baby," and "Little Irish Girl," Mr. Fitch; Mascheron's "For All Eternity," Mrs. Reeder, and Pinsut's "Good-night, Beloved," quartet composed of Mrs. Reeder, Mrs. Powell, Mr. Fitch, and Mr. Peters. Mrs. Powell is spending some time with friends in the country near Washington.

Mrs. E. A. Martin, contralto, and her daughter, Miss Mildred Martin, have returned from a visit at Ocean Grove of a month or more. Mrs. John H. Nolan, sister-in-law of Mrs. Martin, who also made a visit at Ocean Grove and some of the other Jersey coast resorts, with Mr. Nolan, has returned to their country home, near Washington, but will leave again this week for her former home, in Ohio, for her semi-annual visit.

The substitute quartet for the month of August in St. Margaret's Church is composed of Miss Mary Sherer, soprano, in the place of Miss Edna Doe; Miss Emma Houchen, contralto, in the place of Mrs. Jessica Tabler Benham; Mr.
Boyer, tenor, in the place of Mr. Hensey, and Mrs. McCuen, in the place of the organist, Mr. Eldridge, who is in Maine on his wedding trip.

Mr. Edwin Hughes, pianist, is expected in Washington on Wednesday for a visit with his parents and sister, at 97 P street, after a long period of study with Leschetizky, in Vienna. Mr. Hughes will go on to his new post of duty as director of the piano department in the Ganapoli School of Musical Art in Detroit early in September, where he will be joined by his bride of a few weeks, who was Frau Dr. Therese Schiffer, of Vienna, and who is detained in Vienna on business connected with her removal to this country permanently.

MARYLAND MEET IS GRAND SUCCESS

Large Crowd Attends the Leonardtown Races.

RAIN INTERFERES ON MONDAY

St. Mary's Racing Association to Hold Another Meeting the Latter Part of October—Many Fast Local Horses Compete and Make Good Showing—Result of the Races.

Leonardtown, Md., Aug. 20.—This town has no telegraph service with the outside world, but has a telephone long distance service, which, because of the electrical disturbances which have prevailed in this latitude for the past few days, has been out of commission; hence I have been compelled to use the mails.

The meeting, which ran three days, was one of the best attended in the history of the ancient county of St. Marys, and from a financial point of view, one of the most successful. The grand stand and infield were each day fully occupied, some of those in attendance driving thirty miles to be present. The best of order prevailed, the single officer on the grounds having nothing to do. Encouraged by the meeting of the week the St.
Marys Racing Association has decided to hold another such meeting the latter part of October.

The judges and timers were J. F. Gold-borough, of St. Marys; N. R. Plunkett, of Washington; Mr. Magruder, of Hyattsville, Prince George County, and John Marshall Dent, of St. Marys. L. D. Sale, of Washington, acted as starter and presiding judge.

A steady rain on Monday carried the card of the day over until Tuesday. The first race on the card Tuesday was a three-year-old trot and pace, best three in five, in which there were four entrants, all by Don Cozine. 2:19. A better, handsomer, and better-mannered field of colts never faced a starter in Southern Maryland. It is doubtful whether such a field has started anywhere in this country the present racing season, opportunities taken into consideration, and all by one horse.

Frank C. Combs, the owner of the dead sire, was present with a happy smile on his countenance, and was the subject of hearty congratulations on every hand.
While the card called for three-year-olds, one, a large, handsome bay in color, galled as a trotter should be, and owned by George Hardworth, of Leonardtown.
This youngster specially distinguished himself on the days he raced.

In the first heat of this race Russell Cozine drew the pole, Black Maria second place, Palm Cozine third place, and Wolverine the extreme outside. The race was conceded to the fast but lame Palm Cozine from the start, as he had been for many weeks in the hands of J. C. Mott, of Washington. Therefore, public interest centered in the fight between Wolverine, Russell Cozine, and Black Maria for place honors.
Mott drove Palm Cozine an evenly rated mile, and won in straight heats.
The battle for second money was between the Wolverine and Russell Cozine.
Black Maria had plenty of speed, but was unsteady. In the end, after a hot contest, Russell Cozine won second place over the Wolverine.

The next race on the card was the 2:18 trot and pace, in which were entered Bedworth, Jr., Trixie, and Redwood, Jr.
Bedworth, Jr., and the Redwood horse are trotters, Trixie a pacer. It was quietly thought among quite a number of persons present that the Washington mare would take the measure of the home stallion, Bedworth, Jr., and she ruled a slight favorite before the start, as it was rumored that he was a trifle soft when pinched.

Bowling, however, took the handsome bay stud out in front at the start, and the brown mare could never get to him during the three heats trotted and paced, and he did to head him. Harry Bowling, of Washington, drove the son of Bedworth in a superb manner, the latter stepping the first mile in 2:26, eased up, over a rather heavy and cuppy track, Redwood, Jr., trotted a game mile, but was outclassed.

In the second heat Mott made another gallant try with the mare, but soon gave up the battle and only concerned himself with second money, which he won with ease.

In the running race, half mile dash, the Washington-owned filly, Elaborate, won over Henry Southern, who is also owned at this point. Elaborate is the property of Napoleon B. Plunkett. Time, 57.6.

(Note.—The Leonardtown track, twice around, is eighty yards over a mile).

The skies were threatening during the forenoon of Wednesday, the second day of the meeting, which kept many persons from attending the races living a distance from town. Nevertheless, the grand stand was filled to repletion, and many even braved the rain that set in soon after the bell rang the horses up for the first race.

The opening feature of the afternoon was a special race for three-year-olds, in which the black filly Black Maria had her innings, the race of the day previous having apparently put her on edge, as the saying goes. Then, too, Combs seemed to have got a line on the capricious miss, who did not want to pass the draw gate on the way to score down. Black Maria is a well-turned filly, very smooth going when on her stride, but at present wears the Indiana pajamas to make her go around the turn at speed. She won in straight heats, chased out in each heat by the handsome bay filly Grace Russell, by the dead sire, Happy Russell.

Mott was up behind the gamecocklooking bay colt Don Cozine, Jr., but the best the smooth-going son of his father could get was fourth. He will do better when he knows what is wanted of him and will pace fast. Happy Russell, the only other in the race, is an Ohio-bred filly, by Porto Bell. She showed lack of work and condition, but was fast in spots. Two special races, one between the sorrel gelding Trede and Redwood, Jr., in which Trede won, and another between Palm Cozine and Redwood, in which the latter won, concluded the card of the day.

Note.—Track a sea of mud.

The piece de resistance, the big card of the meet, was on Thursday, which concluded the three days' meet. The large-est crowd of the meeting faced the horses and horsemen; there was a tang in the air and the track, although still cuppy, grew better as the hours passed. The track was fast enough to permit Bed-worth, Jr., in the free for all, to step a first heat in 2:26½, and a third in 2:24 flat, within a second of the fastest record made over the track, and considering the condition of the track, many think the fastest mile ever trotted or paced over it.

He is owned by Harry M. Jones, of Leonardtown, and was driven in all his races by Harry Bowling, who trained him, and who teamed with exceeding skill and judgment, and who held him in his lap most of the way. At that Bedworth, Jr., stepped the last half in 1:19, and it is believed that he can trot the Gentleman's Driving Park track a mile close to 2:15. Jubilant, owned by Thomas Dodge, of Washington, it was thought before the race, might be able to lower the bay stud's colors, but he could not reach him in any part of the three miles.
Then Combs, behind Trixie, took up the battle for two heats and tried to make it interesting for all. The balance of the field was too fast for Redwood, Jr., and Fairfax did not try hard.

The special race, which preceded the free for all, brought out a field of five and excited the greatest enthusiasm on the part of the gathering, as all the animals engaged were locally owned. It was a five-heat affair, in which Russell Cozine and the two-year-old Wolverine, had it almost every inch of the five miles hammer and tong, with the sorrel gelding, Trede, always a dangerous factor, and, within striking distance. But when the smoke of battle lifted, the game two-year-old bay colt, trained and magnificently driven by A. L. Pilkerton, with his long and telling strides, trotting each mile without a break, proved the victor in one of the most exciting races ever trotted or paced over the Leonardtown track. Summaries:

GIRLS' CLUB OPENS WITH A RECEPTION

Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland Heads Receiving Line.

The Young Woman's Christian Association Vacation Lodge for the girls of Washington was opened last night with a reception and house warming. Mrs. H.
B. F. Macfarland, assisted by the Misses Brown, Buckingham, Hubbard, and Savary, received the guests, and seventeen girls who went to the lodge for a weekend trip fell into line and helped to make the moments pleasant for the visitors.

The mirth and laughter that prevailed wherever girls were scattered told the whole story, and the consensus of opinion was voiced when one of the girls said the lodge was the "dandiest" place on earth.

Every detail connected with the new establishment was explained to the visitors. The girls of the association worked hard to raise the $5,000 used to build the lodge.

To-day at 11 o'clock there will be a religious service, and an address will be given by Miss Florence M. Brown, general secretary, on "How to be a friend."

BLUES DEFEATS THE REDS.

Magruder School Youngsters Hold Exciting Athletic Meet.

The Blues scored a close victory over the Reds yesterday afternoon at the Magruder school recreation center. The score—68 to 57—attests to the closeness of the competition. The Reds won all points in the foot race, the junior obstacle course, the tug of war, and tied in the baseball game, while their rivals won the basket ball game and the volley ball games. Girls spent the evening at their favorites—the tether-ball game, baseball, and croquet. Many mothers were on hand to witness and take part in sports to their own liking. On next Wednesday watermelon will be furnished to the children of the playground after the last contest of the season. The games were under the direction of Miss Sarah Johnson and E. B. Henderson. Summaries: Foot race—Won by Pete Conway, red; second, George Farrow, red; third, Percy Green, red.
35-yard dash—Won by George Thomas, blue; second, Willie Smith; third, George Howard.
Obstacle race (junior)—Won by George Farrow, red.
Obstacle race (senior)—Won by George Thomas, blue; second, Pete Conway; red; third, Sylvester Webb, red.
Volley ball (junior)—Blues, 15; Reds, 12.
Volley ball (senior)—Blues, 15; Reds, 12.
Baseball, playground, four innings (senior)—Reds, 2; Blues, 2.
Score—Red Camp, 47; Blue Camp, 68.
Total number of points for season contests—Reds, 32; Blues, 37.

Adolph G. Engel Dies.

Adolph G. Engel, thirty-five years old, a lithographer, of the Geological Survey, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 48 Park road. He was a victim of pneumonia and typhoid. His wife survives.

Goes to Atlantic City.

The Misses Katharine and Margaret Aylmer, both prominent in church choir circles, have gone to Atlantic City for the remainder of the season. Miss Katharine Aylmer spent the early part of the summer at Haymarket, Va.
